LIVING JUSTLY

“You give that back right now!” How many of us have heard that line, probably more than once, as we were growing up? We come home with the trophy of what we thought was a really sweet deal, only to have our parents undo our profits by making us return the spoils. They had a different idea of what constituted a “fair trade agreement.” Justice in our dealings with others continues to be an important measure of our character, and like a good parent, God cares very much about how we treat each other and about how others treat us. God hears the cry of the poor, and answers the call of the oppressed. God’s beloved children are not to behave like bullies. Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

Let Us Pray For the Deceased:
Parishioners of St. Albert the Great,
Teofilo Nieto, Richard Talavera.

Eternal rest grant unto them, o Lord, and let the perpetual light shine upon them. May they rest in peace.

From the Pastor's Desk

My Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ!

„ The worst thing that can happen is not death. The worst thing is to die without ever knowing Jesus”.

Today I encourage you to pray in the intention of our deceased loved ones. November is nearing quickly and is dedicated by the Catholic Church to all who passed away. In just one week we will celebrate the feast of All Saints. Because this will fall on Sunday, we will keep Sunday's Mass schedule. On Monday we will celebrate the Feast of All Souls; Mass schedule is provided in this week's bulletin. Let's offer our deceased family members and friends our confession, Holy Mass, Holy Communion, visit their graves, and offer our work and suffering in their intention. The lives' journey leads all of us in the same direction. Every day we are getting closer to eternity. May this thought be our constant companion. I conclude with words of a prayer: “Eternal rest grant unto them, o Lord, and let the perpetual light shine upon them. May they rest in peace. Amen”.

“Jesus, I Trust in You”!

SAINTS SIMON AND JUDE, APOSTLES October 28

Saint Jude, apostle and . . . Hollywood success story? Indeed! Beyond Simon's being a “ Zealot” for Israel's liberation and Jude's question about Jesus revealing himself (John 14:22), no historic facts are known about either saint. But Saint Jude's well-known patronage of lost causes and hopeless cases is largely due to a desperate vow made just before World War II by a struggling entertainer, the son of Arab-American immigrants, Danny Thomas. Unemployed, his wife about to give birth, Danny, attending Mass, impulsively donated his last seven dollars to the collection, promising: “Saint Jude, if you help me find my way in life, I will build a shrine in your honor!” Older Americans remember well Danny's long, successful movie and television career. Grateful parents worldwide know the miracles that have taken place for fifty years at his Saint Jude Children's Research Hospital, where needy children are cared for regardless of race, religion, or financial resources, and monumental advances continue in healing and preventing pediatric cancers and catastrophic childhood diseases. A living, life-giving partnership is this “Communion of Saints”: Simon, Jude, Danny Thomas—us! J. S. Paluch Co.

BORN TO LOVE

We were born to love, we live to love, and we will die to love still more. —Joseph Cafasso

CIVILIZE IT

DIGNITY BEYOND THE DEBATE

2020

What does it mean to form my conscience?

Catholics have a long tradition of engagement in the public square. Sometimes that engagement requires making difficult moral decisions that impact our own lives and those of others. Our conscience can help guide the decisions we make. The Second Vatican Council guides us: “Always summoning [one] to love good and avoid evil, the voice of conscience can when necessary speak to [one’s] heart more specifically: do this, shun that” (Gaudium et Spes 16). However, our conscience doesn’t just come to us when we are born. We must work throughout our lives to form it through prayer, learning, and conversation.

How do I form my conscience?

It takes time to form our consciences so that we can make well-reasoned judgments about particular, real-life situations. The Church teaches that it is important to work continually on conscience formation so we can be prepared to make decisions whenever the opportunity arises. Some specific ideas to form your conscience are:

- 1) Begin by being open to the truth and what is right.
- 2) Study Sacred Scripture and the teaching of the Church.
- 3) Examine the facts and background information about various choices and be discerning in where we gather information.
- 4) Prayerfully reflect to discern the will of God (Forming Consciences for Faithful Citizenship, no. 18).

Additionally, it is important to consider how our community of faith can help us form good consciences through some of these steps:

- 1) Seek the prudent advice and good example of trusted leaders and others to support and enlighten our conscience.
- 2) Learn about the authoritative teaching of the Church.
- 3) Pray for the gifts of the Holy Spirit to help us develop our conscience.
- 4) Regularly partake in an examination of conscience to hear God’s voice in your life.¹

Doing the work of forming our consciences can seem daunting. Fortunately, we have many church teachings that can help us in this important task. Forming Consciences for Faithful Citizenship is an important resource for U.S. Catholics and helps us prayerfully reflect on how we can apply Church teaching in our civic life. “Conscience is not something that allows us to justify doing whatever we want, nor is it a mere “feeling” about what we should or should not do. Rather, conscience is the voice of God resounding in the human heart, revealing the truth to us and calling us to do what is good while shunning what is evil.”²

Here are some questions for further reflection:

1. When has my conscience guided me to “do good and avoid evil”?
2. What are some key resources I can use to form my conscience?
3. Forming conscience is a “lifelong task.” What do I do to regularly form my conscience? What more should I do?

Dear St. Albert the Great Parishioners,

This week at St. Albert the Great School, our students and staff have been working hard getting used to the fall weather and enjoying the crispness in the air. Once again, our school week has been a busy flurry of activities. As you have heard, St. Albert's is a personalized learning school, which allows our students to advocate for their own learning and to take ownership of their growth. This year, we have a team of 6 teachers participating in the personalized learning professional development program. While in this program, our teachers learn strategies that will help them to enhance the classroom experience based upon a growth mindset and high academic rigor. Please keep these teachers in your prayers as they embark upon this meaningful work.

I would like to give a special "shout out" to our 8th grade students who are doing a wonderful job leading us this year in morning and afternoon prayers. This year, our 8th graders broadcast prayers from their classroom, and all the other classes tune in to the broadcast, so we can come together two times a day to prayer together as a school family and to remember our special intentions. Additionally, every Friday our school prays the Rosary together. Different classes host the Rosary and broadcast it from their room, while the rest of the school tunes in to participate with them. While we cannot be together in the same room, it is important for us to find a way to pray together in community during this time. We would also like to thank Fr. Mariusz, Fr. Bernardo, and Fr. Sergiusz for coming to visit the children in school this past week. The children love seeing our priests and learning from them. Then, to cap off the week just right, our school participated in our School Mass on Friday. Everyday we keep all of you in our prayers through our intentions. Please keep us in your prayers, and especially our 8th graders, as they embark upon their „Najgorsze co może się zdarzyć to nie jest śmierć. Najgorsze to umrzeć nie znając Jezusa”.

Moi Drodzy Parafianie i Goście!

Dziś kieruję do Was serdeczne słowa zachęty do gorliwej modlitwy w intencji naszych bliskich krewnych zmarłych. Zbliża się bowiem miesiąc listopad, który w tradycji Kościoła Katolickiego jest dedykowany zmarłym. Za tydzień w niedzielę 1 listopada celebrować będziemy Uroczystość Wszystkich Świętych. W tym dniu porządek Mszy Świętych w naszym kościele będzie niedzielny. W poniedziałek zaś 2 listopada będziemy celebrować Święto Wszystkich Wiernych Zmarłych. W biuletynie parafialnym znajdziemy dziś i za tydzień dokładny rozkład Mszy Świętych. Proszę Was ofiarujmy w intencji naszych zmarłych: spowiedź świętą, Msze Święte, Komunię Świętą, módlmy się za zmarłych w tzw. Wypominkach, odwiedzajmy groby naszych zmarłych na cmentarzach, ofiarujmy w ich intencji nasze cierpienia i prace. Każdy z nas idzie w tym samym kierunku. Codziennie zbliżamy się do wieczności. Niech ta świadomość nieustannie nam towarzyszy. Zakończę słowami modlitwy: „Dobry Jezu, a nasz Panie, daj im wieczne spoczywanie. Amen”.

„Jezu, ufam Tobie”!
Ks. Mariusz

MIŁOŚĆ W TRZECH AKTACH

Człowiek jest powołany do miłości. Pan Bóg stworzył nas z miłości i zaprosił, abyśmy odpowiedzieli na Jego miłość, naśladowali ją i zarażali nią świat. Dlatego w życiu chrześcijanina niezwykle istotne są trzy sprawy: wierna miłość do Boga, zdrowa miłość do siebie i ofiarna miłość do drugiego człowieka.

Pierwsza miłość dotyczy mojej relacji do Boga. Kochać Go, to nie tylko myśleć o Nim czule, pięknie o Nim mówić i pobożnie się modlić. Miłość do Boga przejawia się w tym, że On jest naprawdę moim Bogiem, jedynym Panem, jest dla mnie najważniejszy i razem z Nim układam moje życie. Wtedy naprawdę kocham Boga, wierzę w Niego, ufam Mu i potrafię zawierzyć Mu siebie i wszystko, czym żyję. Druga miłość dotyczy mnie samego i polega na umiejętności kochania siebie w taki sposób, w jaki ukochał mnie Bóg. Nie chodzi tu jednak o miłość egocentryczną, egoistyczną czy narcystyczną. Kochać siebie, to widzieć siebie oczami Boga i czuć się Jego umiłowanym dzieckiem. Trzecia miłość dotyczy sióstr i braci i wyraża się w sposobie mojego myślenia, mówienia i postępowania. Miłość do bliźniego nie jest tylko zwykłą postawą dobroci i przyjaźni. Kochać drugiego człowieka, nawet nieprzyjaciela, to być dla niego miłosiernym tak, jak miłosierny jest Bóg. To pragnąć i szukać jego dobra, umieć poświęcić mu swój czas, siły oraz dobra duchowe i materialne. Jeżeli naprawdę jestem człowiekiem miłości, to chcę dla bliźniego tego, czego pragnie dla niego Bóg: błogosławieństwa i szczęścia na ziemi oraz życia wiecznego w raju.
ks. Wojciech Kuziola – paulista

ZŁOTE MYŚLI ŚW. JANA PAWŁA II

Chrystus nie zgodzi się nigdy z tym, aby człowiek był uznawany - albo aby samego siebie uznawał - tylko za narzędzie produkcji; tylko żeby według tego człowiek był oceniany, mierzony, wartościowany. Chrystus nigdy się z tym nie zgodzi. Dlatego położył się na tym krzyżu, jak gdyby na wielkim progu duchowych dziejów człowieka, ażeby sprzeciwić się jakiegokolwiek degradacji człowieka. Również gdyby to była degradacja przez pracę. (1979).
