WE ARE KNOWN BY OUR FRUIT

This week, Jesus tells us that we must examine our own inner selves, our attitudes and dispositions, virtues and faults, rather than judging others. What is in our hearts comes out in what and how we speak. If our hearts are filled with kindness and compassion, those qualities will be evident in our speaking, just as beautiful, wholesome fruit comes only from healthy trees. And vice-versa. The Wisdom writer Sirach in the first reading agrees with this concept—that we will be judged by our words. Paul reminds us that the reward of discipleship is eternal life. Today's psalm of thanksgiving and praise reminds us of God's kindness and faithfulness, which we are to emulate in our thoughts, words, and deeds. We are known, each of us, by our own fruit. Please remember that the declared amounts can be donated in monthly installments throughout the entire year. Payments can be mailed directly to the Archdiocese of Chicago or dropped in the collection basket. I ask you to please pray over your spiritual and material gift to your church.

Reflection question:

How can I help bring about God's peaceful reign?

SYNOD 2021 - 2023

On Sunday, October 24, 2021, Cardinal Blase Cupich celebrated a Mass for a Synod at Holy Name Cathedral, opening the process for the Archdiocese of Chicago. Pope Francis' has said that "the purpose of this Synod, is not to produce documents, but to plant dreams, draw forth prophecies and visions, allow hope to flourish, inspire trust, bind up wounds, weave together relationships, awaken a dawn of hope, learn from one another and create a bright resourcefulness that will enlighten minds, warm hearts, give strength to our hands." (Preparatory Document, #32). In mid-September, the Pope said: The Synod is for everyone, and it is meant to include everyone. The Archdiocese of Chicago has provided the web page www.archchicago.org/news-and-events/synod to the people to share their reflections. Scan the QR code with your smartphone and take a moment to explore, to pray, and to share your comments on communion, participation, and mission.

Fundamental Question

A synodal Church, in announcing the Gospel, "journeys together".
*How is this "journeying together" happening today in your local Church?
What steps does the Spirit invite us to take in order to grow in our "journeying together"? As you respond.*

Recall our experiences: What experiences of our local Church does this question call to mind?

Re-read these experiences in greater depth: What joys did they bring? What difficulties and obstacles have they encountered? What wounds did they reveal? What insights have they elicited?

Gather the fruits to share: Where in these experiences does the voice of the Holy Spirit resound? What is the Spirit asking of us? What are the points to be confirmed, the prospects for change, the steps to be taken? Where do we register a consensus? What paths are opening up for our local Church?

Communion

In the Church and in society we are side by side on the same road. How are we called to grow as companions? Listening is the first step, but it requires an open mind and heart, without prejudice. All are invited to speak with courage and parrhesia, or bold and forthright speaking; that is, in freedom, truth and charity.

Who are those in the margins in our local community?
How do we encounter them and listen to their voices? How does what we hear inform how we journey together?

Participation

The Constitution on the Sacred Liturgy (Vatican II, 1963) called all the faithful to that full, conscious, and active participation in liturgical celebrations. What has that come to mean in our post-pandemic church? Can we maintain participation without people at Sunday worship?

Synodality is at the service of the mission of the Church in which all members are called to participate

Mission

Sunday worship is the most visible aspect of our religion. The church's mission also includes service, evangelization, healing, and teaching. Does our faith steer us when making decisions and weighing values? Does it bring consolation? Does it challenge you to sacrifice? Synodality entails receptivity to change, formation and ongoing learning.

Above all the Church works for justice, peace and respect for all human life

We stand before You, Holy Spirit, as we gather together in Your name.

With You alone to guide us, make Yourself at home in our hearts; Teach us the way we must go and how we are to pursue it.

We are weak and sinful; do not let us promote disorder. Do not let ignorance lead us down the wrong path nor partiality influence our actions.

Let us find in You our unity so that we may journey together to eternal life and not stray from the way of truth and what is right.

All this we ask of You, who are at work in every place and time,
