SUNDAY LITURGY REFLECTION

Keep in mind that Jesus is walking the road to Jerusalem as he speaks to the crowd in the Gospel passage we hear today. As he tells them that those who follow him must be prepared to carry their own cross, he himself is heading toward the day when he will literally be carrying his own cross. Jesus does not carry a cross to free us from the burden of ever having to do so ourselves. He does not save us from suffering. But by carrying his own cross, he shares in our suffering.

How can Jesus, who speaks so eloquently about love, and teaches us that love of God and love of neighbor are a distillation of the entire law, say today that we should hate our family and even our own life? This language may reflect a Semitic idiom that refers to primary loyalty. In this context "hate" means whoever is not one's primary choice, one's primary love. It also helps to keep the words from Wisdom in mind: "Who can conceive what the LORD intends?" (9:13). We must trust in the One whose mind is greater than what we can conceive. May we find guidance from the Holy Spirit, who as Wisdom says, comes to us from on high with God's wisdom.

Today we hear Saint Paul's letter to Philemon, a fellow Christian, about his former slave, Onesimus. Onesimus has escaped. After speaking with Paul, who is ironically in prison himself, he converted to Christianity. Perhaps the most remarkable aspect of this letter is not that he insists Philemon welcome him back, but also that he entrusts this request to Onesimus himself, who could have destroyed this brief letter and run in the opposite direction. After all, he could have been executed if he were apprehended. It is also significant that Paul trusts that Philemon will voluntarily forgive and free Onesimus. Paul enables both Onesimus and Philemon to face their own moral choice, trusting that each will choose to act according to their newfound faith, allowing them both to experience a conversion of heart firsthand.

From the Pastor's Desk

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ!

Jesus Christ, our Teacher and Savior, calls us every day to take care of our own salvation. How are we to care for our salvation? The answer is given to us by Blessed Cardinal Stefan Wyszyński: "From the little things of life, made with a big heart, comes the greatness of man." Let us remember that beauty is born in the heart, is reflected in the eyes and lives in good deeds. Thus, we attain the salvation of our soul when we love God and men and perform works of mercy. Let us pray for the grace of salvation in the words of Saint Mother Teresa of Calcutta:

"Lord, when I'm hungry, send me someone to feed!
When I'm thirsty, send me someone to give a drink to!
When I'm cold, send me someone to offer him warmth!
When I'm sad, send me someone to comfort!
When I am poor, send me someone even poorer than me!
When I don't have time, send me someone to listen to!
When I am humiliated, send me someone that I could praise!
When I'm discouraged, send me someone that I could encourage!
When I feel misunderstood, send me someone to hug!
When I don't feel loved, send me someone I should love!
Therefore, let us respect every human being, because Christ lives in him!"

Great things happen @ St. Albert the Great!

From the teachers, a few words on some wonderful things around the classrooms this week...

1st: This week first grade has been hard at work mastering routines and procedures. They are doing a great job working on their daily handwriting and phonics lessons. We are currently working on an illustration unit and creating some beautiful drawings to go with our writing.

2nd: This week in second grade we have been practicing our prayers, morning routines and how to play different games safely at recess. Some of the games at recess that we practiced are tag, we also created an obstacle course on the playground and now we are learning how to play relay races safely.

Moi Drodzy Parafianie i Goście !

Jezus Chrystus nasz Nauczyciel i Zbawiciel wzywa nas każdego dnia, abyśmy zadbali o własne zbawienie! W jaki sposób mamy się troszczyć o nasze zbawienie. Odpowiedź daje nam błogosławiony kardynał Stefan Wyszyński: „Z drobiazgów życiowych wykonywanych wielkim sercem powstaje wielkość człowieka”. Pamiętajmy, że piękno rodzi się w sercu, odbija się w oczach i żyje w dobrych uczynkach. Tak więc zbawienie naszej duszy osiągamy gdy kochamy Boga i ludzi oraz pełniemy uczynki miłosierdzia. Módlmy się o łaskę zbawienia słowami Świętej Matki Teresy z Kalkuty:

„Panie, kiedy jestem głodny, pošlij mi kogoś, kogo mógłbym nakarmić!
Kiedy jestem spragniony, pošlij mi kogoś, kogo mógłbym napić!
Kiedy jest mi zimno, pošlij mi kogoś, kogo mógłbym ogrzać!
Kiedy jestem smutny, pošlij mi kogoś, kogo mógłbym pocieszyć!
Kiedy jestem biedny, pošlij mi kogoś jeszcze bardziej uboższego ode mnie!
Kiedy nie mam czasu, pošlij mi kogoś, kogo mógłbym wysłuchać!
Kiedy jestem upokarzany, pošlij mi kogoś, kogo mógłbym pochwalić!
Kiedy jestem zniechęcony, pošlij mi kogoś, komu mógłbym dodać odwagi!
Kiedy czuję się niezrozumiany, pošlij mi kogoś,
kogo mógłbym przytulić do siebie!
Kiedy nie czuję się kochany, pošlij mi kogoś, kogo powinienem pokochać!
A zatem szanujmy każdego człowieka, bo Chrystus w nim żyje!”

„Jezu, ufam Tobie”!
