Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ!

Vigil of Christmas * December 24, 2023

“...This evening is the vigil of Christmas, and we ponder on the mystery of the birth of Jesus, Our Lord and Savior. God built the world for the Incarnation of the Son. Divine wisdom foresaw from all eternity that the Word would assume our nature in coming to earth. To accomplish this task, God chose a woman, the most holy Virgin Mary, who brought forth Our Savior.

In the Incarnation, God made us see what the human mind could hardly have imagined or understood. So great was God's love for humanity that in becoming human, God desired to fill us with divinity. God wished to crown us with divine goodness and dignity. God wanted us to be children of God, for we are formed in God's image.

Our Savior came into this world to teach us what we need to do to preserve in ourselves this divine resemblance of God. Let us let go of all that is not of God in our house. When we open our hearts to God's love, we bring to birth the Christ Child in our hearts to establish God's kingdom on earth...”(Adapted from the writings of St. Francis de Sales)

„Jesus, I Trust in You”!
Fr. Mariusz

December 24, 2023 - 4th Sunday of Advent

Life is troubling. Who among us has not struggled with anxiety and difficulties, sometimes massive ones? I certainly have, as have many of my loved ones. If we do, does this mean that we don't trust the Lord or just need to toughen up?

I don't think so. How encouraging for us anxious and troubled souls to hear Luke describe the Blessed Mother Mary in these words, “But she was greatly troubled at what was said.” An archangel has visited her. An inconceivable promise has been made to her. Her life has become wildly unpredictable, perhaps more so than any person before or since. The first point for us: the Lord is with her precisely when she is troubled. Her anxiousness and God's presence are not mutually exclusive. Christianity is not about a trance-like robotic indifference. It's about the presence of divine love. Even in — especially in — troubled circumstances.

Our troubled soul can become our greatest treasure. What seems so troubling at first to Mary becomes the best possible thing, Jesus, the Savior and Lord, is now her son. All the difficulties and troubles remain, and yet her movement into the fullness of God is accelerated. What is troubling you right now? This scripture invites us now, this week, to hear the Lord's messenger say to us what he said to Mary, “Do not be afraid! You have found favor with God.” — Father John Muir ©LPi
